

Ms. Len's Worries II

LITTLE FLOCK©

After class, Lan approached Ms. Len and shared her secret. She whispered, “I was in a rush because I needed to talk to Ryan and Ay about the games for the birthday party. Ryan is very smart and has many ideas, and Ay knows the most delicious foods that we can get for the party.” Ms. Len listened to her secret, nodded and promised to keep the secret between them.

“So the children know who has what talents” Ms. Len whispered to herself under her breath, as she reflected on the conversation. Ryan is smart with many ideas; Alexander is fun with a good temperament; Lulu is thoughtful, friendly and timid; Lan is enthusiastic yet sensitive; and there are also Ay and Dede etc.

Truly, God gives every child a different character and skills. After some thinking, Ms. Len came up with a new idea. Before the children left school for the day, she told a story Moses Is So Busy and said, “Now let’s think. Everyone has different strengths, so how do we use our strengths to help others?”

Also, how can we improve ourselves to overcome our shortcomings? Even as your teacher, I also need help sometimes. I need a little assistant. Today's homework for everybody is to brainstorm who would be best suited to be this little assistant for me."
